

Angela Green

Director of AEC

Angela joined AEC as a team member at the age of 14 and became the programme's Director in 2011.

She has won numerous titles as an athlete and coach, including a podium in the Nations Cup at the USASF World Cheerleading Championships in 2010 and winning European Gold in the 2012/2013 season.

Angela has co-managed and co-coached the English National team for the ICU Cheerleading World Championships since the team's inception. She is a multiple medal winner achieving six gold, two silver and two bronze medals.

Angela has also choreographed for sporting events such as the SuperCup Final, FA Cup Final, the NFL Wembley games, the 2012 Olympic Games, as well as for Beyonce's clothing brand Ivy Park, and the National Theatre.

In 2011 Angela was recognised by the Queen at Buckingham Palace for services to young people. In September 2016, Angela's services to cheerleading were celebrated by Future Cheer; she was the first inductee into the Future Cheer Hall of Fame. And in 2018 she was recipient of the ICU International coach of the year award- a testament to all the work she has done to help make Team England a force on the international stage.
